ORDER OF DETENTION

This matter is before the Court on the Motion to Revoke Order of Release filed by the United States of America on November 3, 2014 (Doc. 39). The motion was granted in part with respect to the issuance of a warrant and a hearing was held on the matter on November 3, 2014. For the reasons set forth below, the motion is now GRANTED in its entirety and Defendant Angela D. Jones's bond is REVOKED and she is hereby ordered DETAINED pending trial in this matter.

At the hearing held on November 5, 2014, the Defendant did not challenge the assertions in the Bond Violation Report. Specifically, the defendant did not challenge that on November 1, 2014, she admitted to using crack cocaine and that she failed to return home on that day as required.

Pursuant to the Bond Violation Report, the Court finds that there is clear and convincing evidence that the Defendant violated the following conditions of his bond: that she refrain from the use of controlled substances and home detention. 18 U.S.C. §3148(b)(1). This Court further finds that the Defendant poses a danger to the community and that he is unlikely to abide by any condition or combination of conditions of release. 18 U.S.C. §3148(b)(2). It is clear that Defendant has a drug habit that has not been remedied or controlled through drug treatment programs. She also has displayed a willingness to violate home detention in order to use drugs.

Therefore, this Court ORDERS that the Defendant's release be REVOKED and further DETAINS the Defendant pending trial. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)(2)-(4), the Court further ORDERS that: 1. The Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal; and 2. The Defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with his counsel; and that, on order of a court of the United States, or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with court proceedings.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: November 7, 2014

DONALD G. WILKERSON
United States Magistrate Judge
